

Bringing Green to the Mainstream photo gallery

Guests listen to information regarding Green Building during Kevin Stover's presentation.

Guests gather their lunches prior to the start of the event.

Chairman Mike Munn greets the crowd for the first Lunch and Learn of 2008.

TCAR and TCC thanks the sponsors Hasentree, Kennedy Covington and Newland Communities.

Kevin Stover, The Green Building Initiative, was one of the keynote speakers. He formally introduced Green Globes to the Triangle market and explains how this green program can benefit the private and public sectors.

Charlotte Mitchell, Kennedy Covington Law Firm spoke about what's happening on the local and state regulatory front with respect to green building standards.

Town of Cary Councilor Julie Robison is introduced to the attendees.

Q&A session