

TCC/NAIOP Lunch and Learn With Gubernatorial Candidate Charlotte Mayor Pat McCrory

On August 19, 2008, the TCC worked jointly with the Triangle Chapter of the National Association of Office and Industrial Properties (NAIOP) hosting a forum with Gubernatorial candidate Charlotte Mayor Pat McCrory to discuss key regional issues.

The session, attended by 200 business leaders and elected officials from across the Triangle, included discussion around a range of critical issues facing the Triangle during the next four years including transportation and infrastructure funding, economic development plans for the region's urban communities and balancing urban needs with issues that are pressing to the state's rural communities.

Gubernatorial Candidate Pat McCrory and
TCC Board members that attended the event.

2008 TCC Chairman, Mike Munn,
Mayor Pat McCrory and
NAIOP President, Jeff Sheehan (L-R)

Mayor McCrory mingles with Tommy Byrd, TCAR President,
Toby Burke, NAIOP and David Lazzo, TCC Past Chairman.

Mayor McCrory addressing the audience

TCC Past Chairman, Gordon Grubb greets Mayor McCrory after the event.